Product Reviews: Real Life Discipleship: Building Churches

Real Life Ministries uses the idea of discipleship through small groups to teach us how to do the same in our own lives and in our churches. The reader is given the model of the spiritual stages of a Christian Life and how to distinguish where we are within that model in order to help us each grow toward fuller maturity as a disciple of Christ as well as to help train others to do so as well.

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: Real Life Discipleship

Real-Life Discipleship was written for church leaders who want to help fulfill the Biblical mandate for the church, which is to magnify God and mature His people. I appreciate how Putman points out that for too long too many churches have used the church as a venue to evangelize but not disciple.

The Top 12 Discipleship Books of All Time (Reviews)

Churches should be proactive, intentional and focused on discipleship. Discipleship is not arbitrary one-on-one or small group meetings that discuss spiritual principles or read books together. Discipleship should be thought of as the deliberate process of leading individuals and churches to spiritual maturity.

With a thorough, results-oriented process that can be applied in other contexts and cultures, this manual explains the necessary components of disciple-making so that every church member can play a part in reaching others for Christ. A great leader's resource, it shows you how to cultivate new leaders for the future and equip them to make disciples.

Over the last thirty years, many influential church leaders and church planters in America have adopted various models for reaching unchurched people. An [attractional] model will seek to attract people to a local church. Younger leaders may advocate a more [missional] approach, in which believers live and work among unchurched people and intentionally seek to serve like Christ. While each of these approaches have merit, something is still missing, something even more fundamental to the mission of the church: discipleship. Making disciples[helping people to trust and follow Jesus]is the church's God-given mandate. Devoted disciples attract people outside the church because of the change others see in their Christ-like lives. And discipleship empowers Christians to be more like Christ as they intentionally develop relationship with non-believers. DiscipleShift walks you through five key [shifts] that churches must make to refocus on the biblical mission of discipleship. These intentional changes will attract the world and empower your church members to be salt and light in their communities.

Now available in trade paper, Church Is a Team Sport shows proven ways to push believers, new and mature, toward growth as both Christians--and leaders. Through this powerful, thought-provoking volume, ministers both in the congregation and on staff will discover how to expand the church one soul at a time. Making disciples is the crux of pastor Jim Putman's message. The plan works. Caring for people, following up on stray sheep, and teaching what it means to love God and obey him. That's how Church Is a Team Sport transforms Christians from Monday-morning quarterbacks into dynamic players.

More time, spent with fewer people, equals greater kingdom impact. Desiring to see God widely embraced as more than a remote concept, entrepreneur Regi Campbell began a deeply successful mentoring program years ago that has become one of his greatest joys. Though it seemed radical at first[spending more time with less people to further an all important message]he soon realized this is the discipleship model Jesus set out during his ministry: today two billion people worldwide embrace the wisdom He entrusted to a small band of disciples two thousand years ago. Mentor Like Jesus is Campbell's revelation of what he now calls [next generation mentoring,] an exponentially rewarding process that is resulting in [lives changed, marriages saved, children dealt with in a more loving way.] Readers of any age and in any situation will clearly understand how the return on a meaningful investment in another person is truly immeasurable.

Christ's command to the church is clear: [Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations...] It is in building disciples--helping others to embrace Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, mature in him, and then lead others to do the same--that the Kingdom grows. And when the Kingdom grows, churches do, too. In Growing True Disciples, respected author and researcher George Barna helps pastors and leaders assess how their churches are doing in fulfilling their role as disciplemakers. And he reveals models and examples that will equip churches to dramatically increase their effectiveness. As a result, your church can begin to see more involved members who want to live out their faith in submission to God, and joyfully share their resources to fulfill Christ's commission.

Help churches make the shift from attracting members to making disciples.

Most Christians agree that discipleship is important, even essential for Christian maturity; few understand biblical principles and even fewer apply a biblical process when it comes to discipleship.

Jesus gave his followers a command: [Follow me.] And a promise: [And I will equip you to find others to follow me.] We were made to make disciples. Designed for use in discipleship relationships and other focused settings, Multiply will equip you to carry out Jesus's ministry. Each of the twenty-four sessions in the book corresponds with an online video at www.multiplymovement.com, where New York Times bestselling author David Platt joins Francis in guiding you through each part of Multiply. One plus one plus one. Every copy of Multiply is designed to do what Jesus did: make disciples who make disciples who make disciples!. Until the world knows the truth of Jesus Christ.
